Choir—Two Excerpts from the Mediaeval Church:

(a) Kyrie (from the "Missa Alma Pater") - - - - - Plainsong

(b) Popule Meus, Quid Feci Tibi? ("Hear, O My People")

This unusual work was written to satisfy the demands of both the Roman and Greek Orthodox Churches. The main choir sings in Latin and the responses are delivered in Greek.

Scripture Lesson

Choir—Music of the Russian Church:

(a) Hospodi Pomilui ("Mighty Lord, Have Mercy") - - - - - Ancient Chant

At one point in the old Russian church service, it was the custom for the priest to hold a cross above his head, while the choir behind repeated rapidly the single phrase, "Hospodi Pomilui."

(b) Legend - - - - - Tchaikowsky-Bell

An old Russian legend says that once, when Christ was a child, He was weaving a garland of roses for himself in His garden. A group of cruel children passing by, laughed at Him, and pressed a crown of thorns on His head.

Prayer

Choir—Two Negro Spirituals:

(a) He Never Said a Mumblyin' Word

(b) Dark Valley - - - - - Rittenhouse-Bell

This new work was introduced last year and has already met with considerable success. It was written especially for the Bell Singers.
